

Document Shred Day

Saturday, April 18, 2009
9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon

The City of La Quinta, in partnership with Burrtec Waste & Recycling Services is offering a FREE Document Shred Day to the residents and businesses of La Quinta.

Protect yourself from Identity Theft by participating in this Document Shred Day.
This event is FREE to all La Quinta residents and businesses

How do I participate in this event?

Participants can bring their documents to 78-000 Avenue 52 on April 18, 2009 between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon, or until capacity is reached. Participants are limited to 3 file boxes (the size copy paper is sold in). Proof of residency or business license will be required.

What can I bring?

Acceptable items- all office type paper, glossy paper, file folders, binders, and envelopes. Stapled and bound paper will be accepted.

Unacceptable items- The following items will NOT be accepted: Metal clips, metal brackets, binders, old cardboard boxes, trash, household hazardous waste, carbon paper, transparencies, foods, liquids, paper towels, tissues, glass, aluminum, and plastics.

Location: 78-000 Avenue 52
(In the parking lot in front of the La Quinta Maintenance Yard, south of Avenue 52)